To Mr. Small Claims Court potential customers

I retained Jordan Farkas' legal services and expertise to help with a contract dispute and fee dispute situation when I was building out a small consulting business this past year.

We used Jordan in two separate situations with regard to one client dispute. In both situations, we were very impressed with his ability, knowledge and level of expertise and relied upon him extensively to guide us in our legal situation in our claim.

I found Jordan to be a pleasure to deal with and is wholly professional and knowledgeable. I have every intention of using him again if the need arises in the future and would gladly recommend him to anyone considering his service.

Yours truly
