Mr. Small Claims Court

Attention: Jordan Farkas

Thank you so much for your help and guidance with our recent dispute. Through the entire process you consistently and promptly communicated with us. We appreciated your professionalism and honesty. It's amazing that through, various emails, telephone calls and a letter from your office you were able to accomplish a successful outcome. This was more than what we had hoped for.

Should the need arise, we will not hesitate to use your services again and are grateful to have someone such as yourself on our side.

Mr. Small Claims Court is a professional legal service we would strongly recommend to anyone who needs affordable legal advice.

Sincerely,

Trevor and Rachel White
